

PORTLAND INSTITUTE FOR CONTEMPORARY ART (PICA)

PICA acknowledges and advances new developments in contemporary art while fostering the creative explorations of artists and audiences. Established in 1995 by a committed group of artists and patrons, PICA features emerging regional, national, and international artists in all disciplines, bridging the gap between historically-focused collecting institutions, commercial galleries and performing arts presenters. PICA's enduring passion adds significant value to the arts ecology of the region.
